

New Courthouse Dedication Ceremony Saturday, Feb. 1

Public Invited to Tour New Building During Day

NEW COUNTY COURTHOUSE— Dedication of the new Wasatch County Courthouse will take place this Saturday, February 1 at 10:00 a. m. in the Courtroom. Tours will follow until 2:00 p. m. The public is invited to attend and inspect the new facility.

Wasatch County's impressive new Court House will be officially dedicated in ceremonies Saturday, February 1, 1969, at 10:00 a. m. in the Courtroom.

The dedication ceremony will be followed by tours of the building until 2:00 p. m. Refreshments will also be served those visiting the building.

The Dedicatory Services will be as follows: Welcome, J. Russell Wall, Commissioner; Invocation, Grant Shelton, Commissioner; Presentation of Colors; Pledge of Allegiance, Floyd L. Witt, Sheriff; Introduction of Guests, E. A. Jacobsen, Commissioner; "This Is My Country" Girls' Quartet composed of Connie Carlile, Diane Patterson, RaNae Remund, Laurel Mahoney; Remarks, Walter Montgomery, former County Commissioner; Remarks, Maurice Harding, District Judge; Remarks, Richard J. Miller, Building Contractor; Remarks, Edward Joe Ruben, representing the firm of Robert A. Fowler Associated Architects; "America the Beautiful", Girls' Quartet; Dedicatory Prayer, Wayne C. Whiting, County Clerk.

The modern structure located at 25 North Main Street was constructed and furnished at a cost of $391,078.95. Built of cement and brick construction be raised by adding other safeguards.

Construction of the building began a year ago with Miller and Sons as General Contractors. The architectural firm of Robert A. Fowler Associated Architects were in charge of the construction.

The offices of the Commissioners, Clerk and Recorder, Treasurer, Assessor, Health Department, County Extension Service, Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, Civil Defense Director. The building also contains the County Jail, a multi-purpose room, courtroom, and Highway Patrol room, plus rest rooms and maintenance storage areas.

The Commissioners cordially extend an invitation to all to visit the new building on Saturday and inspect the new structure.

